OF LOCAL INTEREST

LICENSED TO WED—A marriage license was issued yesterday to David S. Hill and Miss Alice Ingraham, both of Gila.

A STREET FIGHT—Deputy Sheriff Joe Bales was the accidental guest at a street fight yesterday morning, between the notorious Andy Garcia and Jose Celis. He arrested both of the fighters, who kept trying to get at each other all the way to jail.

A NEW CORPORATION—Articles of incorporation of the Monkey Hill Mining and Milling company were filed in the office of the county recorder yesterday. The capital stock is $50,000, and the incorporators are J. F. Pitt, A. Wingate and H. E. Doerner.

CAMP MEETING—The camp meeting started off with bright prospects last night. Quite a large audience was present who listened most attentively to the sermon delivered by the Rev. C. L. Taylor, the subject being prayer, which was well handled. Several families are already on the ground and more to come. Everything is arranged so that all who will attend can be comfortable.

THE FORMAL ORDERS—Surveyor General Ingalls yesterday received the formal orders for the closing of the Tucson and Prescott land offices and the establishment of the Phoenix land office. There is an order for each of the present offices. The closing will be effected on September 30 and the new office will be open for business October 2. There will be no hiatus for the reason that the intervening day will be Sunday.

AN INSULTER OF GIRLS—Ralph Arnold was before Justice Johnston yesterday, charged with a disturbance of the peace. The case was one of more than ordinary aggravation, consisting of making insulting remarks in the hearing of young girls whom he happened to meet on the street. The girls were spared the embarrassment of being brought into court to testify against him, so that he got off more easily. He was fined $7.

PROSPEROUS BUCKEYE—J. R. Norton was in town yesterday, having just returned from an inspection trip over the Buckeye country, where he has farming interests. He says the farmers are feeling rather jubilant over present conditions, are prosperous and have faith in a still greater prosperity. The canal is affording a good water supply now. All the lands have been watered once and are being gone over the second time.

A PRESIDENTIAL TOUR—Colonel E. Randolph, president of the Southern Pacific lines in Arizona, arrived here yesterday morning from Tucson in his private car, accompanied by H. T. Cory, his assistant. Mr. Cory remained here, but President Randolph, after a short stay, left via the S. P. P. & P. on a special train for Prescott. He was accompanied by F. A. Jones, general freight and passenger agent of the S. P. P. & P. It is understood President Randolph will remain a day or so in Prescott and then go to California via the Santa Fe.

ARREST OF A SPECULATOR—City Marshal Burton of Mesa came to the city yesterday morning and arrested John Ryan, wanted there for obtaining merchandise by false pretenses. He was also wanted in this city and Tempe for similar practices. The goods which he obtained at Mesa were found in a second-hand store in this city. It was thought, until he was found by the Mesa officer, that he had escaped to California. He was locked up in the county jail until afternoon, when the marshal took him back to Mesa.

THE SLAYER OF WITCHES—Deputy Sheriff Cunningham arrived last night from McDowell with Yukapina, the Apache who tried to kill a squaw there last Saturday because he believed that she was practicing witchcraft to his disadvantage. The Indian, who was not expecting to be arrested but who seemed rather to think that he had earned a chromo, betrayed no surprise on the arrival of the officer, and he came to jail without objection. He is about 40 years of age. He will be arraigned before Justice Burnett today on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

MR. FARISH HOME—W. A. Farish, who has charge of the river measurements for the reclamation service in Arizona, returned home yesterday from a two weeks' trip to Holbrook and vicinity. He has been plying new gauges in lieu of the old ones washed out a short time ago by the breaking of the dams on the Little Colorado river. He says the whole country is green and is a delightful panorama for the traveler who crosses Arizona just now. There have been copious rains all over and the grass is springing up with vigor. The elements seem to recognize Mr. Farish as a sort of all round rain agent. They know his business is to measure water so wherever he travels the water is provided for him as though by calculation. When he went north, he found it raining at Ash Fork. It rained all the way to Holbrook and rained the day following while he was there. When he started home again it began raining soon after he left Holbrook, and continued until after he had passed Prescott on the journey homeward. On a former visit to Holbrook, last spring, the same conditions existed. It rained on him most of the way up and back again. The same thing has occurred nearly every time he has made a trip over the Roosevelt road.

HELD FOR MURDER

Hilario Rand Who Accidentally Killed a Woman in New Mexico.

Hilario Rand, a half breed Mexican, whose home is in El Paso, or formerly was, was arrested yesterday about midday by policeman John Moore, on information from New Mexico, charging him with murder. He at once admitted his identity as the man wanted, and arriving at the city jail told the story of the fatal incident whose shadow has hung over him for the last five years. He is quite well known in Phoenix and has been for several years, and has a married sister living here. He has been arrested a time or two on misdemeanor charges and was also a victim of a murderous assault at one time by another Mexican. In the unfolding of these incidents Rand has come to be quite a familiar figure to the officers, though until yesterday they were not aware that a felony charge was hanging over him in New Mexico. He has been considered by the police as a person who was his own worst enemy, being dissipated and when under the influence of liquor careless perhaps to the extent of committing, though he is not recognized as a murderer at heart or a person thirsting for human blood.

Yesterday about 11 o'clock Marshall Kinney received the following letter:

Las Cruces, N. M., Aug. 7, '05
Chief of Police, Phoenix, Ariz.

Dear Sir: Please look out for Hilario Rand. Rand is about 28 years old, bright complexion, slim build, and weighs about 135 pounds. He left El Paso, Texas, about fifteen days ago and went to Phoenix, where he has a sister by the name of Fannie Rand Hunter. I have been informed that Rand has been in that place before and used to work for one Webster Street in Maricopa county. I hold a warrant against Rand for murder and I wish you would arrest him if he is there assuming you that my services are at your command at all times. Arrest, hold and notify by wire at my expense. Yours truly,

JOSE R. LUCERO, Sheriff.

The letter was at once referred to Policeman Moore who knows Rand well. The officer walked down the street, met Rand in front of the Bank Exchange saloon and placed him under arrest. He asked what the charge against him was and was told that it would be talked over with him at the jail. Arriving there and being told by the marshal the nature of the charge against him he at once admitted that he was the man wanted.

Mr. Kinney sent the following telegram to Sheriff Lucero:

"Hilario Rand in custody. Admits the crime. Will not come without extradition papers. Telegraph warrant. He has notified his lawyers in El Paso, J. H. Kinney, chief of police." Rand related his story to the officers seemingly without reservation. If it is a truthful relation he was to begin with a very well meaning young man who was drawn into a very serious situation through the excessive use of liquor. He has suffered some physical and much mental punishment by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The officers have so much faith in his curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This is, unquestionably, the most successful medicine in use for bowel complaints, and it is now the recognized standard over a large part of the civilized world.

A few doses of it will invariably cure an ordinary attack of diarrhoea.

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take, which is important when medicine is to be given to small children.

Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. It may save life.
